For many of our children, Black history is taught in schools several years in; and when they do get around to learning about Black history, those events and biographies are often sad and fearful. 'The No More Trauma Black History Challenge' understands that there's more to black history than civil rights and slavery. While those events are impactful and should not be shied away from, Black history is also positive, and vibrant, filled with self-love and a calming sense of community.

The 'No More Trauma Black History Challenge' is a 30-day evergreen self-paced course featuring an 11-tier challenge that utilizes STEM, multimedia channels, literacy games, and interactive activities to celebrate black history without fear or overwhelming disturbing details for young children. Make learning about Black history fun! For more information on how to sign up, visit the link in our bio.
